

Fact Sheet:

Resource Center

CALIFORNIA DEPARTMENT OF ALCOHOL & DRUG PROGRAMS

The Resource Center (RC) maintains a comprehensive collection of alcohol, tobacco, other drug (ATOD), gambling, prevention and treatment information. The following information is a brief description of services provided to California residents at no cost through a Clearinghouse, full-service Library, Internet communication links, information and referral system, and conferences. Additionally, information is available to national and international customers through the California Department of Alcohol and Drug Programs (ADP) website.

Clearinghouse

ATOD booklets, pamphlets, research papers, posters, technical manuals, and other printed materials are available upon request. The Clearinghouse provides information to community and school organizations, families and individuals, prevention and treatment programs, and government agencies. Printed materials are continually updated as new information is identified.

Library

A collection of specialized ATOD reference sources including books, journals, reports, and audiovisual materials. These materials are available for loan directly to employees of government agencies and organizations funded through county alcohol and drug programs and/or licensed and certified through ADP. In addition, materials are available to lending libraries through an interlibrary loan.

Information, Referral, and Electronic Communications

The RC has two toll-free non-crisis, non-emergency statewide telephone numbers available for California residents needing alcohol, tobacco, and other drug prevention and treatment information. To visit or contact the RC for services:
