SUBJECT: Substance Abuse and Crime Prevention Act of 2000
Frequently Asked Questions

This letter transmits responses to Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs) regarding the Substance Abuse and Crime Prevention Act of 2000 (SACPA). The Department of Alcohol and Drug Programs compiled these responses to assist counties in SACPA administration and implementation. You are encouraged to share this information with your collaborative partners and other impacted groups and agencies.

The FAQs are organized into the following categories:

- A. Program Requirements
- B. Program Start-Up
- C. Licensing and Certification of Drug Treatment Providers
- D. Funding
- E. Service Delivery
- F. Evaluation and Program Monitoring

We hope the FAQs serve as a useful guide and point of reference for you and your staff. We recognize that this list does not address all of the questions posed to the Department and will issue additional FAQs as responses become available.

If you have any questions or comments regarding the FAQs, or if we can be of assistance to you, please call Penelope Tafoya or Jacqueline Tinetti at (916) 445-9655. You may also send your questions or comments to the Department via email at SACPA@adp.state.ca.us.

Sincerely,
